

CHAPTER 19

No Christian Tithing in Hebrews 7

Tithe preachers erroneously and irrationally use Hebrews 7 to justify their tithing system. This is surprising, since Hebrews 6–10 condemns as obsolete the need and practice of tithing.

Why would a preacher try to justify present day tithing by using a portion of the Bible that comprehensively destroys its foundation? This comes from desperate rather than ideal circumstances. The tithe preacher is like a drowning man who tries to save himself by reaching for an object that can't possibly support his weight. But he reaches for it anyway because the alternative is certain death.

In this case, it's the death of guaranteed cash flow from illegitimate tithes. With billions of dollars a year at stake, it is no mystery that tithe preachers use desperate and illogical means to preserve their control over this fortune.

How Tithe Preachers Use Hebrews 7 to Support the Modern System of Financial Tithes

Tithe preachers teach that the church must pay them financial tithes and offerings because they are the direct spiritual descendants of the Levites. Of course, the Bible doesn't teach or slightly hint at this. But tithe preachers must claim this connection to bring us under the
